Tahbilk Wines

Established in 1860 Tahbilk is one of Australia's most beautiful & historic family owned wineries. Located in the Nagambie Lakes region of central Victoria (120kms north of Melbourne), one of the nation's premium viticultural areas, the property comprises some 1,214 hectares of rich river flats with a frontage of 11 kms to the Goulburn River and 8 kms of permanent backwaters & creeks. Purchased by the Purbrick family in 1925, Tahbilk is now home to 5 generations of Purbricks.

At Tahbilk we will have an 'Old and New Tour' and an 'Art of Winemaking Experience'.
See Itinerary for more information.

Mitchelton Wines

The site's history stretches back to 1836, when the explorer Major Thomas Mitchell crossed the river on his 900 kilometre journey from Sydney to Melbourne. The riverside town was to have been called Mitchellstown. Ross Shelmerdine called his fledgling winery Mitchelton, a derivation of Mitchellstown and the vineyard's first sod was turned in 1969. Don Lewis joined Preece for the fledgling winery's first vintage in 1973, and assumed the winemaker's mantle when Preece retired in 1974. That same year, Mitchelton's winery and spectacular cellar door complex, designed by renowned Australian architect Ted Ashton and complete with 55 metre tower, was officially opened.

At Mitchelton lunch will be followed by a Chocolate and Wine pairing exercise hosted by The Ministry of Chocolate and wine tasting including special Museum Wines.
See Itinerary for more information.
