‘Few Victorian wineries occupy a site as beautiful as this magnificent property in the Tarwin River Valley among the verdant rolling hills of southern Gippsland. A magnificent avenue of imposing elms and oaks leads to the hospitable, off-the-beaten-track cellar door. It’s a labour of love for ex-jet fighter jockey and Pan Am pilot John Ellis, a softly spoken American-Australian obsessed with producing the best Chardonnay and Pinot Noir possible in this lovely corner of Victoria. Wine quality can be outstanding.’

Wine Guild Victoria Incorporated promotes the Responsible Serving of Alcohol Warning: Under the Liquor Control Reform Act 1998 it is an offence to supply alcohol to a person under the age of 18 years (penalty exceeds $8000) – for a person under the age of 18 years to purchase or receive liquor (penalty exceeds $700).
