“Life for Brumfield Winery started just over 20 years ago, long before we became an official winery. Smaller wineries offered us so much. We picked grapes, absorbed the passion of those we met, and made small batches of wine in seriously humble conditions. Later oenology and viticulture study helped take the wines to a higher level. We moved to the Yarra Valley still making wine. We lived and made wine at a beautiful property on Brumfield Rd in Healesville, choosing BRUMFIELD as the name of our winemaking operations; the name has been a good choice and is very much a part of us. From September 2009 we took the next step when we opened the new cellar door on our new home property at 539 Queens Rd (Cnr Beenak Rd), Seville. (Home, vineyard, winery, cellar door - all in the same place!) We continue developing our wine range, providing an intimate tasting experience for visitors.”
