

WINE GUILD VICTORIA

FUNCTION NOTICE

TASMANIA 7 DAY TOUR (rescheduled)

Sunday 13th November 2022 – Saturday 19th November 2022

Dear Members and Friends

Wine Guild Victoria's much anticipated and rescheduled tour of Tasmania takes place in November 2022 and will take you to some of the best cellar doors in Tasmania, where some of Australia's most sought-after cool climate wines are showcased.

We will be visiting some unique cellar doors, vineyards and wineries including Puddleduck in the Coal River Valley, Derwent Estate (at right) in the Derwent Valley, Bream Creek, which overlooks the site of Abel Tasman's first landing in 1642, and the famous sparkling wine producers of the Tamar Valley - Bay of Fires (including the House of Arras), Jansz, Pipers Brook, Tamar Ridge and Josef Chromy Wines. You'll also experience a tour and cruise at Port Arthur, visit an historic and award-winning distillery and, of course, sample some of the best produce, wines and scenery of Tasmania.

Inclusions:

- accommodation at the Best Western Balmoral Motor Inn, Hobart and the Tamar Valley Resort near Launceston for a total of 6 nights
- 6 full buffet breakfasts, 4 lunches and 3 dinners including wine
- wine tasting at 11 cellar doors and a visit to a very special scenic vineyard
- coach travel for five days
- tour and cruise of Port Arthur
- tour and tasting at an historic distillery

The tour is exceptional value at $1280 per person for members and $1380 per person for non-members.

A single supplement of $55 per night applies to those wanting a single room. Please see the itinerary find out more about what's in store for you on this wonderful tour.

Travel from Melbourne to Hobart and from Launceston to Melbourne is NOT included. Please be aware that if you take your own car you will need to drive it from Hobart to Launceston on Wednesday 16th November or make arrangements to park it in Hobart and return to Hobart to pick it up.

Check in at the at The Old Woolstore Apartment Hotel, Hobart anytime from 2.00pm on Sunday November 13, 2022 in time for the Welcome Dinner at the Hotel (6.30 pm for a 7.00 pm start).
