'THE WINE GOURD'

David Morrison is an Australian-born international wine blogger, now based in Sweden. His interest in wine began while completing his PhD in Plant Biology, which led to him exploring wineries around Australia.

David's blog The Wine Gourd delves into the world of wine data, with the intention of ferreting out interesting stuff and telling the world about it. His blog explores issues such as value for money, the ranking of wineries and wine exports. Some recent articles in The Wine Gourd include "How Australian 'beer slobs' became wine drinkers", "Swedish wineries – who's have thought it?" and "Why beer companies should never buy wine companies".
