IN THE SPOTLIGHT

BRESS & LOME WINES

Wine Guild Victoria's End-of-year lunch will feature wines from Tim Robertson and Chris McCormack who took over Bress Winery in June 2022 and have been producing quality wines ever since. The pair have a keen focus on producing bio-dynamic wines and live by the mantra to 'enjoy life's simple pleasures'. The event will also feature wines by Lome, which is owned by Tim and his wife Di.

LOOK FORWARD TO SAMPLING...

Bress Wine Le Grand Coq Noir Shiraz

This wine is produced from two separate blocks within a single vineyard. The Bendigo Region vineyard is over 40 years old and is planted to the PT23 clone on own roots.

Lome Wine Viognier Marsanne Roussanne

Straw green in colour, a blend of Marsanne bringing flavours of honeysuckle and lime, Viognier with floral and spicy characters and white stone fruits and Roussanne with floral notes and a hint of pear.
